As soon as your parcel leaves our warehouse you will receive an email with a tracking number and a link to the carrier's tracking page. You can also find tracking details under My Orders in your account. Tracking information can take up to 24 hours to appear after dispatch.

Lost, Late or Damaged Parcels

If your tracking has not updated for 5 business days, or your parcel is marked delivered but you cannot find it, contact our support team. We will open an investigation with the carrier and, if the parcel is not found within 7 business days, send a free replacement or a full refund.

If your parcel arrives damaged, please take photos of the packaging and the items within 48 hours of delivery and send them to support. Damaged items are replaced free of charge.
